ENGLISH

致同学

亲爱的同学们：

欢迎大家开启英语中级学习之旅！从现在起，这套教科书将伴你一路学习，见证你的成长。

本套教科书以问题为线索、以活动为载体，联结现实生活，彰显时代特色，融入丰富多元的文化内容。学习本套教材，有助于发展语言能力、培育文化意识、提升思维品质、增强学习能力，树立国际视野，涵养家国情怀，坚定文化自信，逐步形成正确的世界观、人生观与价值观。

本套教科书包含基础教程与提高教程两部分：基础教程共三册，对标 CEFR A2 等级与 CSE 3 级素养目标，达到初级中等学校毕业及高级中等学校招生选拔的基本要求；提高教程共一册，对标 CEFR B1 等级与 CSE 5 级素养目标，满足高级中等学校毕业及普通高等学校招生选拔的基本要求。

教科书结构方面：

基础教程以单元为基本组织模块，每册有 16 个单元，分为预备单元、复习单元和正式单元等三类。每个正式单元围绕一个单元主题，设置四个板块：A 板块（Dialogues & Passages）提供地道对话和优美短文，主题丰富、内容生动且富有时代性，帮助同学们学习英语语言知识，培养英语思维。B 板块（Key Structures）借助典型例句，讲解本单元重点语言知识。C 板块（Vocabulary & Phrases）列出本单元需要掌握的单词和短语：CSE 3 级核心词汇（1500 词）采用粗体字突出标识，要求认读、拼写、运用和辨析；CSE 5 级核心词汇（3500 词）采用正体字标识，要求认读、拼写；其余词汇为正体并在右上角加注星号（*），仅作认读要求。D 板块（Expanding Horizons）结合单元主题编排跨文化交流、跨学科学习、综合运用和写作等内容，为真实语境下的语言交际与应用奠定基础。

提高教程以课为基本组织模块，共 72 课，每课围绕特定语言知识设计课文（Passage）和词汇（Vocabulary）2 个模块，帮助学生深化对基础教程内容的理解，提升英语语言知识的综合运用能力。

英语作为一门自然语言，其魅力不仅体现在丰富的词汇与独特的语法体系，更蕴藏在语言持续使用、不断发展过程中承载的文化与历史。想要学好英语 —— 乃至任何一门自然语言，都需要掌握行之有效的学习方法，坚持多听、多说、多读、多写、多记、多用。

曾有一位游人在游览杭州西湖后写下一首打油诗：

昔年曾见此湖图，不信人间有此湖。

今日打从湖上过，画工还欠费功夫。

受限于教材篇幅与编者学识眼界，英语语言文学的博大精深，难以在这几册书中尽数展现。但这无妨，不妨坚持学下去。或许有一天，当你学有所成，回望这套教科书，会由衷感慨：“如今识得英语趣，编者还欠费工夫。” 书山有路勤为径，祝愿大家在英语学习的道路上收获新知，不断进步！

Ella: No, I don't see them … Oh, wait a minute. Now I see them! Dad, they're on your head!

Dad: Oh, thank you, Ella!

Ella: You're welcome.

Passage 1

Hi Martin,

Lin Xinxin is my best friend in the class. She is 10 years old. Her brother is Lin Yangyang. He is ten. They are from Beijing, China. Xinxin is good at sports. Her favourite subject is P.E. Yangyang is good at maths. His favourite subject is science. He isn't good at sports.

Yours,

Jim

Passage 2

Look! This is my uncle's farm. It's a big farm. The grass is so green. You can see many kinds of animals. He has pigs, horses, cows, ducks, sheep, and chickens. How many ducks does my uncle have? Let me count. One, two, three, …, fourteen ducks! Oh, no. Look there! Another duck is behind the big tree. Do you see that house? That's my uncle's home. It's beautiful. Do you like my uncle's farm?

A Dialogues & Passages

Conversation

Chen Jie: Hello, Mr. Smith!

Mr. Smith: Hello, Chen Jie. How are you?

Chen Jie: I'm good, thank you. Mr. Smith, this is my new friend, Peter.

Peter, this is our English teacher, Mr. Smith.

He's from the US.

Mr. Smith: Hi, Peter. Nice to meet you.

Peter: Nice to meet you too, Mr. Smith.

Mr. Smith: What class are you in, Peter?

Peter: I'm in Class 1.

Mr. Smith: Who's your class teacher?

Peter: Ms. Hui.

Chen Jie: Oh, Peter, it's Ms. Gao, not Ms. Hui. Hui is her first name.

Peter: Oh, sorry! My mistake.

Passage 1

Making New Friends

Pauline Lee 2 hours ago

Hi, I'm Pauline Lee, and I'm 14 years old. I live in Singapore with my big family. I have a pet bird. It's a parrot. Her name is Coco. She even speaks some Chinese! My favourite sport is tennis. I often play it with my friends after school. Do you want to be my friend?

Peter Brown 3 hours ago

Hey there! My name is Peter Brown. I'm 13 years old. I'm from London, in the UK. Now, I live in Beijing with my parents. My favourite food is Beijing roast duck, and my favourite place is the Great Wall. I like music, and I play the guitar in the school band. Would you like to be my friend?

Passage 2

My Personal Profile

My name is Andre Kalu. I'm 13 years old. I'm from South Africa, but now I live in China. I live with my father, my mother, and my brother. We have a pet cat. His name is Toby. My favourite food is beef noodles. My favourite sport is basketball. I play basketball every weekend with my brother and my friends.

Passage 3

Making New Friends at School

Hello, boys and girls! Do you like to make new friends at school? Yes? Here's some of my advice.

First, don't be shy! Try to talk to all of your classmates. Smile and say, "Hello! What's your name?" If you didn't hear the name clearly, try, "Sorry, can you repeat that for me, please?" Then give your name and say, "Nice to meet you!" It's really as simple as that! It's important to get people's names right. If you get them wrong, they might feel sad!

Second, ask questions! Ask about school, sport, music, and more! As you listen, think of more questions to ask. So when your classmate stops talking, you can jump in and ask another question! But remember, you have to be a good listener before you can ask good questions.

Last, don't forget to share! Tell your classmates something interesting about yourself. Then your new friends can get to know you too! Soon enough, you'll be the best of friends!

I hope you find my advice helpful! Now go make some new friends!

KS1 Yes-No Questions & Wh- Questions (be) 含有 be 动词的一般疑问句和特殊疑问句

Yes–No questions are closed-ended questions that can be answered with "yes" or "no". It is typically formed by placing be before the subject. For example, "Are you ready?" or "Is he Mr. Wang?"

一般疑问句属于封闭式问题，可以用 "是" 或 "否" 来回答。这类问句通常把系动词 be 放在主语之前构成，例如："Are you ready?"或者"Is he Mr. Wang?"

Wh- questions are questions that begin with words like "what", "who", etc. It is used to ask for specific information rather than a yes/no answer.

特殊疑问句是以 what、who 等词开头的问句。它用于询问具体信息，而非得到是否的回答。

KS2 Simple Present Tense (be) 一般现在时 (be)

The simple present tense is used to express facts, habits, general truths, and scheduled events. If there is the verb be (am, is, are) in the sentence, the basic structure is: S + be + (not) + other elements.

一般现在时用于陈述事实、习惯、普遍真理以及已经安排好的事件。如果句中含有 be 动词（am、is、are），其基本结构为：主语 + be + (not) + 其他。

Something about Greeting Cards

- There are many different cards for many different occasions. However, most follow the same organisation.
- Most cards have a picture and a few words showing why you write it.
- The inside right-hand page often has a short message.
- You usually sign the card under the message.
- Many people write a short personal message on the inside left-hand page.

Fill in the blank 填空

a. The name of the person you are sending the card to.

b. Your own name.

c. A short personal message.

d. A long message.

e. The card-maker's printed message.

Something about Notes

- People usually write notes to remind someone of something, asking someone to do something or tell someone something.
- In notes, it's not necessary to write an opening such as Dear …, or an ending such as Love from … or Best wishes …
- Notes are usually short.

Fill in the blank 填空

a. The writer's name.

b. The time.

c. The message.

d. The name of the person the note is written to.

A Dialogues & Passages

Conversation

Teng Fei: Hi, Peter! Come in.

Peter: Thanks. Oh, these ping-pong bats are nice. Whose are they?

Teng Fei: Well, this is my ping-pong bat, and the black one is my grandpa's.

Peter: Do you often play ping-pong together?

Teng Fei: Yes, we play every week. My grandpa loves sport.

Peter: Whose fishing rods are those?

Teng Fei: They're my father's. He spends a lot of time fishing.

Peter: Hey, do you play the piano?

Teng Fei: No, I don't. It's my mother's piano. She can play it really well!

Passage 1

Hi, I'm Lily from Ireland. I love my big family. Here's a photo of us. I'm the one with the pink hat.

This is my dad, Fred, on the left. He's very handsome. He often plays tennis with me. My little brother, Sam, is on his knee. Sam is seven, and he really likes chess. My mum, Jane, is on the right. She's beautiful and kind. She always reads me a story at night. My grandparents, Jack and Sarah, are in the middle. They're my dad's parents. They have a dog. His name is Oscar.

My grandparents have three grandchildren: Sam, my cousin Lucy, and me. They often say I'm their favourite grandchild, but I think they say the same thing to all of us!

Passage 2

I’m Kevin. I have a big family. I have a little brother. His name is Ben. He is five. Our mum and dad love us very much. I have an aunt. She is my mum’s sister. The handsome man beside her is my uncle. He is very nice. My grandma and grandpa are over 60 years old. They both love riding bikes.

Passage 3

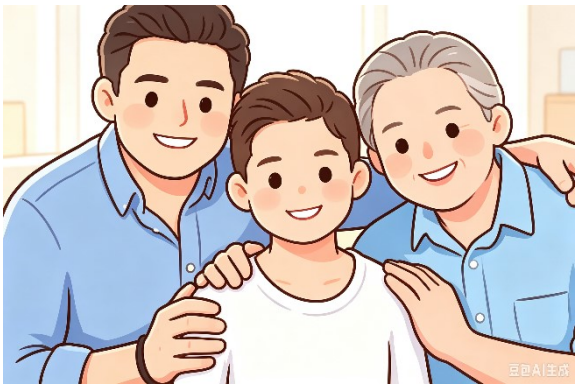

Family Ties in Names

Hello! My name is Alan, and I'm from the UK. Here most people have a first, middle, and last name. My full name is Alan Luke Wood. Alan is my first name, Luke is my middle name, and Wood is my last name. We also call the last name a "family name" or "surname".

My grandfather also has three names. His full name is George Charles Wood. My father's name is the same as my grandfather's. Can you guess why? It shows great respect to my grandfather. People call my father George Charles Wood Junior, and they call my grandfather George Charles Wood Senior.

My mother's name was Linda Grant, but now her name is Linda Wood. Why is that? Because in the UK, a woman often changes her family name to her husband's family name. Sometimes, however, the woman's last name and the man's last name are joined together. This allows both family names to live on.

Names show family ties. What do you think?

KS1 Yes-No Questions (do) 含有一般动词的一般疑问句和特殊疑问句

Yes–No questions are closed-ended questions that can be answered with "yes" or "no". It is typically formed by placing do / does before the subject. For example, "Do you like rice?" or "Does she have an apple?"

一般疑问句属于封闭式问题，可以用 "是" 或 "否" 来回答。这类问句通常把助动词 do / does 放在主语之前构成，例如："Do you like rice?"或者"Does she have an apple?"

KS2 Simple Present Tense (do) 一般现在时(do)

The simple present tense is used to express facts, habits, general truths, and scheduled events. If there is a general verb in the sentence, the basic structure is: S + v. + other elements. Particularly, when the subject is third-person singular, we change the verb form following the rules.

一般现在时用于陈述事实、习惯、普遍真理以及已经安排好的事件。如果句中含有一般动词，其基本结构为：主语 + 动词 + 其他。特别地，当主语为第三人称单数时，动词需要按规则变换形式。

Poems about Family

This is my family.
I play with my brother.
We share.
I have a small family.
I love my small family.

My family, my family.
All the people I love dearly.
Grandpa and grandma,
kind and sweet.
Dad and mum make my life complete.
Sister plays games with me.

This is my family.
I talk with my cousins.
We listen with care.
I have a big family.
I love my big family.

Brother runs beside the tree.
Uncle and aunt are nice to see.
Cousins share their toys with me.
One big family, happy and bright,
we love each other day and night.

Proverbs about Family

- Family is where life begins and love never ends.
- East or west, home is best.
- Blood is thicker than water.
- Harmony in the family brings success.
- Home is the warmest harbour.

A Dialogues & Passages

Conversation

Mum: What's your new classroom like, Peter?

Peter: It's large. There are 40 student desks in the room.

And a teacher's desk in front of the blackboard.

Mum: Where do you sit?

Peter: I sit in the middle of the classroom.

Mum: That's nice. What's special in your classroom?

Peter: There's a smart whiteboard next to the blackboard.

Oh, and there's another blackboard at the back of the classroom.

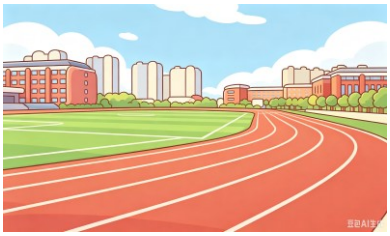

Mum: Another blackboard?

Peter: Yes, we put up important notices there.

Mum: Are there any lockers in the classroom?

Peter: No, there aren't. We put our things in the desk drawers.

Passage 1

To: flora4ever@magictime.com

From: peterbrown@happymail.com

Hi Flora,

Thanks for your email. To answer your question, my new school is great! It's very beautiful. There are many modern buildings.

There's a large sports field next to the teachers' building. All the students go there and do exercises together in the morning. It's amazing! Every Monday we raise the flag there. It's a special way to start the week.

LGPL Free as in Freedom

The classroom building is behind the sports field. We spend most of the time in our classroom. It's big and clean. Every week, we change seats. This week I sit next to my best friend, Han Lin.

The dining hall is across from the sports field. It's my favourite place because there are many kinds of food. I love the Chinese food there. They make delicious jiaozi.

How about your school?

Yours,

Peter

Passage 2

This is a classroom in the UK. There are many things in the room. There's a screen on the wall. A whiteboard is next to the screen. There are some bookcases behind the whiteboard. The teacher's desk is in the corner, under a window. Students sit on chairs at long tables, but today there aren't any students.

Passage 3

My Floating School

My name is Sadia Khatun. I'm from Bangladesh. It's difficult to walk on some roads in the rainy season here. So how do I go to school? It's easy! The school comes to me! I study on a "floating school".

My floating school is a "school bus" and classroom all in one. The boat picks me up early in the morning. Our classroom is on the boat too. There are several boats on the river at the same time. Each boat has one teacher and one class. The teacher teaches us all the subjects.

The boat is long and wide. We sit at wooden desks. Big windows bring in lots of sunlight and fresh air. There's a blackboard at the front. There's a computer next to it, and it gets its power from the sun. At the end of the school day, the boat takes me home.

I learn a lot at my school and have fun too. I love my floating school!

KS1 Existential Sentences (There be - structure) 存现句（There be 句型）

The existential sentence is a special pattern showing something exists in a place or presenting new information. It generally begins with a there as formal subject followed by a form of the verb be.

存现句是一种表示某处存在某物或引入新信息的特殊句式，通常以 there 作形式主语开头，后接 be 动词的某种形式。

In the there-be structure, the verb be must match the subject in number. But if the subject is a list of things and the first thing is a singular countable noun or an uncountable noun, the verb be can be is.

There-be 结构中 be 动词与主语的数保持一致，但主语如是一系列事物且第一个事物为可数名词单数或不可数名词，be 动词用 is。

A Teenager's Joke: Guidelines for Doing Schoolwork

My school had a policy about homework. Students should not spend more than ninety minutes per night doing homework. This is how I use the time for my work.

- Fifteen minutes looking for assignment;
- Eleven minutes calling a friend for the assignment;
- Twenty-three minutes explaining why the teacher is mean and does not like teenagers;
- Eight minutes in the bathroom;
- Ten minutes getting a snack;
- Seven minutes checking the TV Guide;
- Six minutes telling my parents that the teacher never explained the assignment;
- Ten minutes sitting at the kitchen table waiting for Mom or Dad to do the assignment.

Conversation

Binbin: What's your next class?

Emma: History. It's my favourite subject.

Binbin: Why do you like it?

Emma: It's interesting to learn about the past.

Binbin: What's your favourite subject, Meimei?

Meimei: My favourite subject is English. It's useful, and my English teacher is really nice. How about you, Binbin?

Binbin: I like all the subjects, but my favourite is maths.

Meimei: Why?

Binbin: Because I'm good with numbers.

Emma: Oh, it's difficult for me. Can you help me with this subject?

Binbin: Sure!

Meimei: Hey, look at the time. Let's go to class!

Passage 1

Mike Davis @musicfan 7:09 p.m. 19th October

I'm a student in Canada. I'm very busy this year. I study maths, music, French, history, English, IT, science, and have gym. My favourite subject is music because the class is fun and we learn a lot of new songs. Music always makes me happy. My music teacher is excellent. He lets us play all kinds of interesting instruments. I want to be a singer in the future. How about you? What do you study? What's your favourite class and why?

Wu Binbin @ mathswhiz 8:12 p.m. 19th October

I'm from China. This term, I have subjects like Chinese, history, maths, English, PE, and IT. I like all the subjects, but my favourite is maths. I like it because I'm good with numbers. We learn

KS Conjunctions (and / or, but, because / so) 连词 (and / or, but, because / so)

We use and for adding similar information or ideas. It means "too". When we are connecting sentences, we don't need to repeat the same parts of them; we use but for adding contrasting information or ideas; We use or in negative sentences and questions to mean "not one thing and not another thing" or to connect different possibilities.

我们使用 and 来连接并列成分，表示"也"，此时，无需重复句子中相同的部分；使用 but 来表示转折关系；在否定句和疑问句中，使用 or 来表示既不是其一也不是其二或者连接不同的可能性。

The items that we connect with and, but, or should be the same grammar type.

And、but、or 前后的语法形式应当完全相同。

We use so to introduce the consequence or the result of something. The second part of the sentence is the result of the first part of it. To introduce reason for something, we use because. We cannot use because and so in the same sentence. Except for answering questions, the because-clause must be accompanied by other sentences.

我们使用 so 表示某事所带来的后果或结果，句子的后半部分是前半部分所产生的结果；为表示事情（发生）的原因，我们使用 because。because 和 so 不能同时出现在同一个句子中。除了回答问题外，because 所在的分句前后必须有其他句子。

Tips on Writing A Self-Introduction Essay (Résumé)

A self-introduction essay helps you describe who you are, your background, interests, strengths, and aspirations. It allows readers to understand you better and creates a positive impression. Here is the structure of a self-introduction essay:

- Introduction: Start with your name and a brief introduction to grab reader's attention.
- Background: Share your education, family, hometown, or cultural background.
- Interests & Hobbies: Talk about your hobbies, passions, and what you love to do.
- Strengths & Achievements: Highlight your skills, achievements, and experiences.
- Goals & Aspirations: Explain your goals and what you want to achieve.
- Conclusion: End on a positive note and leave a lasting impression.

Tips

Be Honest!

Write about your true self and experiences.

Be Clear & Concise

Use simple and easy-to-understand language.

Stay Positive

Focus on your strengths and achievements.

Be Organised

Follow a proper structure for clarity.

Proofread

Check for grammar and spelling mistakes.

UNIT 5 Fun Clubs

A Dialogues & Passages

Conversation

Teng Fei: Hi there! What club do you want to join?

Peter: I have no idea.

Teng Fei: Here's some good news! Our school wants to start a music club.
Do you want to join?

Peter: Sure. I can play the guitar. What about you, Emma?

Emma: I'd love to, but I can't play any musical instruments.

Peter: Oh, but you can sing well.

Teng Fei: Exactly! How about Ella? She can play the violin, right?

Emma: Yes, she can.

Peter: What instruments can you play, Teng Fei?

Teng Fei: I can play the drums.

Peter: That's great! Let's go to the music room after school!

Passage 1

We Want You!

Cooking Club

Do you love Chinese food? Can you cook? Join our cooking club! Let's learn to cook your favourite Chinese food. Mapo tofu, beef noodles, jiaozi, baozi ... You name it! You can soon cook for your family. Join us in Room 303 at 4:30 p.m. on Wednesdays.

Email Ma Xiaohui at maxh.food@happymail.com for more information.

Book Club

Do you like reading? Join our book club! It's more than reading. We act out stories, talk about books, and make new friends. Books can open your mind and make you think. Come to the library on Tuesdays after school and fall in love with books!

Nature Club

Do you love nature? Can you take good photos? Come hiking with us every Sunday afternoon! We watch birds, take photos, and collect plants and insects. We also visit nature parks. Discover wildlife right under your nose!

Email Jenny at jenny66@happymail.com for more information.

Passage 2

My best friend is Linda. She is good at so many things! She can speak English, French, and some Chinese. I can’t speak French, but I’d like to learn. Linda likes to play the guitar and the violin, too. I like to watch her play. And she can do so much more. She can play ping-pong and tennis. She can even make delicious cakes! Everyone in our class likes her.

Passage 3

Alice's Vlog: My Drama Club

Hello! My name is Alice. Welcome to my drama club!

This is Mr Ford, our drama teacher. Mr Ford is very nice, and he always has great ideas. He helps me so much!

And these are my friends at the drama club. We always have a good time! After practice, we often have pizza. Check out this photo! Mmm ... Yummy!

My parents often come to our shows. They record the shows, and we watch them on TV later. Here's a clip from our last show. That's me with the blonde hair! I look cute, don't I?

The drama club can be hard when I have to remember a lot of lines, but it helps me to understand a lot more about the plays. I'm usually very shy, but when I'm in a play, I no longer feel afraid. Now I'm brave enough to talk, and even sing, in front of lots of people.

I love my drama club—it's never boring.

KS Modal Verb for Ability (can / be able to) 情态动词表能力 (can / be able to)

Modal verbs are used to show the speaker's attitude towards an action or state, such as possibility, permission, necessity, obligation and duty. They have no inflections for person or number, and the verb that follows a modal verb takes its base form. We can form negative sentences by adding not immediately after modal verbs. To make yes-no questions, place the modal verb before the subject.

情态动词表示说话人对某一动作或状态的态度，表示 "可能"，"可以"，"需要"，"必须"，"应当" 等意思。情态动词没有人称和数的变化，后面的动词要用原形。直接在情态动词后加 not 可将句子变为否定句。将情态动词提前可将句子变为一般疑问句。

We use modal verb can or the phrase be able to to express ability that something can be done.

我们使用情态动词 can 或者词组 be able to 表示有能力做或完成某事。

Voices of Youth, Sparkled by Music: The Final of Campus Singing Contest

June 15th, Monday Fine

Last night, our school had its first campus singing competition on the playground. All teachers and students came to watch the show. Bright lights and waving glow sticks made a wonderful feeling.

The show started with nice dances. Twelve student singers went on stage one after another. They sang different kinds of songs. Their beautiful voices touched all the people watching. To our surprise, some teachers also gave great shows. Loud cheers made teachers and students closer.

Later, winners got prizes. Olivia Deng won first place. At the end, everyone sang together. The competition was hard to forget. It made our school life more fun and showed young people's active spirit. I felt youth's power in music and hope for more interesting school activities.

UNIT 6 A Day in the Life

A Dialogues & Passages

Conversation

Lu Jiaqi: Hi! I'm Lu Jiaqi, a school reporter. What's your name?

Tom: Tom.

Lu Jiaqi: So Tom, what time do you usually get up?

Tom: At a quarter to seven.

Lu Jiaqi: And then?

Tom: I have breakfast at about ten past seven. Then I go to school at ten to eight.

Lu Jiaqi: When do you go home?

Tom: Around five.

Lu Jiaqi: What do you do after that?

Tom: Sometimes I play basketball. I have dinner at half past six. Then I do my homework.

Lu Jiaqi: When do you usually go to bed?

Tom: At half past nine.

Lu Jiaqi: That's early!

Tom: Well, you know the saying, "Early to bed, early to rise!"

Passage 1

My name is Timo Halla. I'm 13 years old. I live with my parents in Helsinki, Finland. Now it's December. Every Tuesday, I usually get up at 7:40. I often listen to the news or music. After breakfast, I walk to school. It's only a 10-minute walk. My school begins at 9:00. There are 18 students in my class. Each lesson is 45 minutes long, and there's a break between lessons. I have one Finnish lesson and two home economics lessons in the morning. After that, I have lunch at 12:00. The afternoon lessons begin at 12:30 and finish at 2:15. Then I go to my ice hockey club.

I usually get home around 4:00. It's already dark outside. I often have dinner at 6:00. After that, I read with my parents for an hour. That's an important part of my everyday life. Then I prepare my schoolbag for the next day. At 9:30, it's time for me to go to bed.

Passage 2

On Sundays, Sam sometimes gets up at 9:00. He makes breakfast for his family and then does his homework. Around 2:00 in the afternoon, he meets his friends, and they play football together. At about 6:40, he sometimes goes to a restaurant with his family for dinner. On Sunday mornings, Sam often helps his mother with housework. Sometimes he watches a film in the afternoon. After dinner, he usually plays the guitar for a while. He goes to bed at about 10:00.

Passage 3

Wenwen's mother, China

My mother is a nurse in a hospital. When she works at night, we eat dinner together at 6:30 p.m., and then she goes to work. Her work starts at 10:00. She checks on each patient every three hours. She finishes work at 8:00 a.m. the next day and arrives home by 9:00. Her bedtime is around 10:30. She is busy with her work, but when she is free, we go to the park and have a good time together.

Colin's father, the UK

My father is a bin worker. I usually don't see him in the morning because he gets up at 4:00 a.m. He has something to eat and then goes to work. By 5:00, he is at his first house to empty rubbish bins into a lorry. Work ends around 3:00 p.m. Then he comes to school to pick me up at 4:30. We talk a lot on the way home. Dinner is at 6:00. After dinner, he watches TV for a while. Then he goes to bed early at 8:30. We try to keep quiet at night so he sleeps well.

Poems about Time

Time is grain for peasants.
Time is wealth for workers.
Time is life for doctors.
Time is victory for soldiers.
Time is knowledge for students.
Time is speed for scientists.
Time is money for businessmen.
Time is everything for all of us.
Therefore, seize the time of today!

The mallow in the garden green in hue
Awaits the sun to dry the morning dew.
The radiant spring spreads its nourishing light,
All living things become then fresh and bright.
I dread the coming of the autumn drear,
When leaves turn yellow and red flowers sere.
A hundred streams flow eastwards to the sea
When to return to the west can they be free?
If one does not make good use of his youth,
In vain will he pass his old age in ruth.

青青园中葵，
朝露待日晞。
阳春布德泽，
万物生光辉。
常恐秋节至，
焜黄华叶衰。
百川东到海，
何时复西归？
少壮不努力，
老大徒伤悲。

Proverbs about Time

- Time is money.
- There's no time like the present.
- An inch of time is an inch of gold.
- Longer folk sayings, often conversational.
- Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery, but today is a gift. That is why it is called the present.

UNIT 7 Happy Birthday!

A Dialogues & Passages

Conversation

Woman: Good morning. Can I help you?

Teng Fei: Yes, please. How much is this birthday cake?

Woman: We have a sale today. It's 85 yuan, and it comes with some candles.

Peter: Good, we'll take it. How much are those oranges?

Woman: Six yuan a kilo. How many kilos do you want?

Peter: Five kilos, please. Teng Fei, how about some yoghurt?

Teng Fei: Sure. How much is the yoghurt?

Woman: Five yuan a bottle.

Teng Fei: 10 bottles, please. What's the total?

Woman: 165 yuan.

Teng Fei: Here you are.

Woman: Thank you! Have a nice day!

Teng Fei & Peter: Thanks. You too.

Passage 1

By: Yu Xiaoming on 08/06 5:07 PM

My birthday is on 13th June. On that day, I always eat birthday noodles with eggs. Long noodles are a symbol of long life. Every year, my family and I take a photo together under the big tree in our village. I like taking photos because they help me remember fun times with my family. This year, I want to plant a small tree for my 14th birthday. I'd like to watch it grow with me. When is your birthday? How do you celebrate it?

By: Judy Clark on 09/06 7:54 PM

It's a great idea to plant a tree for your birthday! My birthday is on 28th July. I usually have a party with my friends to celebrate. My mother always makes my favourite chocolate cake. Everyone sings the "Happy Birthday" song, and then I make a wish and blow out the candles. Next, we enjoy the cake, and I open all my gifts. My father marks my height on the door every year. It's fun to look at the marks later. Next time, I also want to do something different. Any good ideas?

Passage 2

We celebrate our own birthdays. We also celebrate the birthdays of our family and friends. Do you know of any other special birthdays? For example, we celebrate William Shakespeare's birthday, 23rd April, as English Language Day. And we celebrate International Nurses Day on 12th May. It marks the birthday of Florence Nightingale, a famous nurse.

Passage 3

My dear son,

It's so wonderful to watch you grow up. I like to see your smile every day! Thank you for bringing joy to the family. Sometimes you do drive me up the wall with your loud music. But I wouldn't change a thing about you. I love you so much. Happy birthday!

Love you,
Dad

To my wonderful mum,

I wish you a happy birthday! Thank you so much for taking care of me and loving me every day. You're such a beautiful and kind woman. I want to be just like you when I grow up.

Your loving daughter,
Amy

Dear Penny,

You laugh all the time, and you have no worries—you're everything I want in a friend. Don't ever change! Stay as amazing as you are, my dear friend. Always remember that if you fall, I'll pick you up. Happy birthday, and stay happy every day!

Your best friend forever,
Tina

KS1 Cardinal Numbers & Ordinal Numbers 基数词和序数词

A Cardinal Number is a number that says how many of something there are, such as one, two, three, four, five and so on.

基数词是表示事物数量多少的数词，例如：一、二、三、四、五等。

An Ordinal Number is a number that tells the position of something in a list, such as first (1st), second (2nd), third (3rd), fourth (4th), fifth (5th) and so on.

序数词是表示事物在序列中位置的数词，例如：第一、第二、第三、第四、第五等。

Most ordinal numbers end in "th" except "one→first", "two→second", "three→third". Watch out for spelling changes: "five→fifth", "eight→eighth", "nine→ninth", "twelve→twelfth", "-y→-ieth".

大多数序数词以"th"结尾，但第一(first)、第二(second)、第三(third)除外。注意第五(fifth)、第八(eighth)、第九(ninth)、第十二(twelfth)的拼写变化和整十变为序数词时末尾的 y 变成 ieth。

KS2 How many / How much / How old Questions

We use how many or how much to ask about the quantity of people or things. How many is followed by plural countable nouns, while how much is followed by uncountable nouns. When how much is not followed by any noun, it is used to ask about the price of something.

我们使用 how many 或 how much 询问人或事物的数量，其中 how many 后加可数名词复数，how much 后加不可数名词。当 how much 后不加任何名词时，询问的是物品的价钱。

We use how old to ask about people's ages.

我们使用 how old 询问他人的年龄。

UNIT 8 Animal Friends

A Dialogues & Passages

Conversation

Peter: The penguin is my favourite animal. What's your favourite animal, Fu Xing?

Fu Xing: I like penguins too. Why do you like them so much?

Peter: Because they're very cute!

Teng Fei: Yes, they look lovely. Let's go and see them.

Peter: Oh, there they are! They can't fly like other birds, but they can swim fast.
I like how they walk. It's funny!

Teng Fei: Yes, it is! Where are they from?

Fu Xing: Look here! It says they're from Antarctica.
It's very cold there, so they often stand close together.
It helps them keep warm.

Peter: They're so smart. What do they eat?

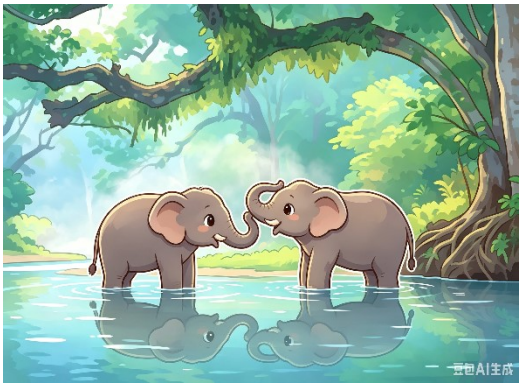

Teng Fei: Fish and small sea animals, I think.

Fu Xing: I have a fish sandwich …

Teng Fei: Don't give them your sandwich! It's not good for them.

Passage 1

Hi, I'm Malee and I live in Thailand!

The elephant is my favourite animal. I love elephants because they are strong and clever. They are also a symbol of good luck here. The elephant is our national animal. On 13th March, we celebrate Thai Elephant Day.

Elephants look very different from other animals. They are huge. They have large ears and long trunks. They can pick up and carry heavy things with their trunks.

Elephants are like us in some ways. They are very playful and love to play in the water. They are great swimmers. They are also clever. For example, they can remember one another and places with food and water after many years. Elephants are very kind too. They look after other elephants when they don't feel well. The big elephants also help the baby ones.

LGPL3 Free as in Freedom

Elephants are an important part of Thai life and culture. However, they are in danger. They live in forests, but people cut down too many trees. People also kill elephants for their ivory. Let's save the forests and not buy things made of ivory. Every elephant counts.

Passage 2

My dog, Xiaohua, is part of the family. She is quite a big dog, but she is not scary at all! She has beautiful fur. She is really friendly and loves to play with everyone. She is also very special. You see, I am blind. Xiaohua is my eyes. She helps me find my way around. She can see and has great hearing. She helps me walk to school and stay safe. I love her very much. We are close friends.

Passage 3

Among the many amazing animals in the world, few are as strange and unusual as the octopus. There are around 300 different kinds of octopuses, and they come in all sizes! The smallest is only around 2.5 centimetres long, but some octopuses can grow up to more than five metres long. There was even an octopus over nine metres long!

The octopus's body is very interesting. All octopuses have eight arms. Their brain is not just in their head, but also in their arms! This helps them to think about and do more than one thing at once. Octopuses can also fit into small places because they do not have any bones! And did you know that octopuses have three hearts? These hearts work with different parts of the body.

Octopuses can also do many amazing things. Most of them can change their colour and shape to look like plants or other sea animals, and they can also make ink. They keep it inside a very small bag in their body. When they produce ink, the ink makes it hard for other animals to see them. This helps the octopuses to get away fast. What's more, when an octopus loses an arm, it can grow it back!

Studying amazing animals like the octopus is important because we can learn a lot from them. But they also show us how wonderful nature is and why it is important to protect it!

KS Plural Nouns 复数名词

A plural noun refers to two or more of something, while a singular noun refers to just one. Plural nouns are essential in English to convey quantity and are used in sentences to match verbs and pronouns appropriately.

复数名词指两个或两个以上的人或事物，而单数名词仅指一个。复数名词在英语中对表达数量至关重要，在句子中使用时，要与动词、代词进行恰当匹配。

Usually, countable nouns follow these rules when forming their plural forms:

· Add –s: cat→cats, apple→apples, penguin→penguins, boy→boys, radio→radios;

· Add –es for nouns ending in s, sh, ch, or x: brush→brushes, watch→watches, box→boxes;

· Change –y into –ies if and only if preceded by consonant: baby→babies, city→cities;

· Change –f or –fe into –ves: leaf→leaves, knife→knives, with some exceptions like roof→roofs;

· "Consonant+o" usually adds –es: hero→heroes, tomato→tomatoes, potato→potatoes.

But countable nouns ending in "consonant+o" formed by clipped words add –s: pianoforte→piano→pianos, photograph→photo→photos, zoological garden→zoo→zoos, kilogramme→kilo→kilos.

通常，可数名词变复数遵循以下规则：

· 直接加 s，例如：cat→cats, apple→apples, penguin→penguins, boy→boys, radio→radios；

· 以 s、sh、ch、x 结尾的加 es，例如：brush→brushes, watch→watches, box→boxes；

· 当且仅当以"辅音+y"结尾，变 y 为 i 加 es，例如：baby→babies, city→cities；

· 除 roof→roofs 等例外，以 f 或 fe 结尾的，变 f 或 fe 为 v 加 es，例如：leaf→leaves, knife→knives；

· 以"辅音+o"结尾的加 es，例如：hero→heroes, tomato→tomatoes, potato→potatoes；

但是以截短构词法构成"辅音+o"结尾的仍然加 s，例如：pianoforte→piano→pianos, photograph→photo→photos, zoological garden→zoo→zoos, kilogramme→kilo→kilos。

Some nouns like man→men, child→children, foot→feet, sheep→sheep, deer→deer, etc., do not follow standard rules and must be memorised. For compound nouns, make the main word plural, like mother-in-law→mothers-in-law.

有些名词不遵循标准规则，必须单独记忆。对于复合名词，将主体名词变为复数。

My Study-tour at Hongshan Forest Zoo

Last autumn, our school took us on a great study trip to Nanjing Hongshan Forest Zoo. We left early by bus and felt very excited.

Teachers showed us around. We saw animals live in places like their real homes. We watched giant pandas eat and rest. We read boards to learn what koalas like to eat. I was most surprised: the zoo no longer has animal shows. It tells us we should respect animals and not make them perform for people.

At noon, we ate lunch in groups and talked about what we learned. In the afternoon, we listened to talks about protecting wild animals.

We went back to school late in the afternoon. This trip helped us turn book knowledge into real experience. It tells me to respect all living things and protect nature.

No Rules, No Order

A Dialogues & Passages

Conversation

Anne: Hi, I'm Anne. What's your name?

Tom: Hello! I'm Tom. It's my first day here.

Anne: It's nice to meet you, Tom! Is everything OK?

Tom: Well, I can't find my pencil box. I think it's in my locker.

Anne: Here, I can lend you my pen.

Tom: Thanks! Would you like a sweet?

Anne: No, thank you. We can't eat snacks in class.

Tom: Can we drink water?

Anne: Yes, of course.

Tom: OK, thanks … Oh! I'm sorry, I have to answer my phone.

Anne: Oh, but we mustn't bring our mobile phones to class.
We have to turn them off and keep them in our lockers.
That's another rule.

Tom: OK! Thanks for telling me, Anne.

Anne: You're welcome, Tom.

Passage 1

Dear Dr. Know,

Help! There are too many rules in my life! Every morning, I have to make my bed before breakfast. I have to hurry to school because I can't be late for school. When I'm at school, I mustn't use my phone in class either. And I have to wear the uniform.

After school, there are even more rules! I have to finish my homework first. I can only play basketball after I practise the piano. I can't hang out with my friends on weekdays. I know some rules are important, but this is awful! What can I do?

LGPL Free as in Freedom

Yours,

Alice

Dear Alice,

Yes, there are many rules in life! But they can help you to become a better person.

You mustn't be late for class. That shows respect for your class and teacher. You can't use your phone in class because you need to focus on learning. You have to wear a uniform because it builds school spirit.

You can also think about the things you can do! You can use your phone at home. You can relax after you finish your homework. And you can hang out with friends at weekends!

I know it's hard, but rules can help to make the world better. Remember: No rules, no order!

Best,

Dr. Know

Passage 2

Rules around Us

· No flash photography.

· Do not bring food or drink near exhibits.

· Do not touch exhibits.

· No smoking.

· Turn off or silence your phones.

· Do not push others to get to the front of the crowd.

· Watch your step around exhibits.

· Do not shout or make loud noises.

· Do not feed the animals.

· Do not litter.

· Do not shout or make loud noises.

· Do not disturb the animals.

· Do not climb over or put your hands or arms through fences.

· No flash photography.

· No smoking.

· Follow instructions when you join in activities.

LGPL v3 Free as in Freedom

· Arrive early or on time.

· Wear formal clothes.

· Take your seats quickly and do not block the aisles.

· No filming or photography.

· Turn off your phones.

· Do not talk during the performance.

· Clap only at the end of the performance.

· Do not run in the pool area.

· Do not dive or jump in the pool.

· Children and beginners must always be with a good swimmer.

· Do not bring food or drink to the pool area.

· Wear swimsuits in the pool.

· Only change clothes in the correct areas.

· Shower before entering the pool.

Passage 3

Dear Dr. Know,

Can you help me? I have to follow too many rules at home and at school. I have to clean my room every day, and I can't let my desk get untidy. At school, I can't wear my own clothes. I can't wear my favourite cap either. After school, I can watch TV, but only after I finish my homework, walk the dog, and do lots of other things!

I can't even relax at weekends, because I have to practise the violin every day! I never have fun. What can I do?

Yours,

Eric

KS1 Imperative Mood 祈使语气

The mood for requests, invitations, advice, instructions, warnings and orders is the imperative mood. In this mood, we use the verb base form directly, and the subject "you" is usually left out. Sometimes we can add the subject to stress who we are speaking to.

用来向对方提出请求、邀请，给予忠告、指示、警告、命令等的语气称为祈使句。在祈使句语气中，直接用动词原形，主语 you 一般省略。有时为了强调，表明对谁讲话，可以加上主语。

KS2 Modal Verbs for Permission & Obligation (can / could / may, have to, must)

情态动词表许可和义务 (can / could / may, have to, must)

We use modal verb can to ask for or give permission. We also use modal verb could to ask for permission but not to give it. Could is more formal and polite than can. In some situations, we use modal verb may. May is the most formal way to ask for or give permission.

我们使用情态动词 can 向他人请求或赋予他人做某事的许可，我们也会使用更加正式且礼貌的情态动词 could 来向他人请求做某事的许可，但是 could 不可用于赋予他人做某事的许可。在一些特别正式或有特殊礼仪礼貌要求的场合，我们使用最正式、最礼貌的 may 向他人请求或赋予他人做某事的许可。

We use have to and must to express obligation. Have to shows us that the obligation comes from outside the speaker, while must expresses a strong obligation or necessity and often shows us that the obligation comes from the speaker.

我们使用情态动词 have to 或 must 来表达义务。Have to 表明义务来自外部，而 must 表达强烈的义务或必要性，通常代表义务源自说话人本身。

We use can't and mustn't to show that something is not allowed. When we want to express that there is no need to do something, we use don't have to.

我们使用 can't 或 mustn't 表达做某事是被禁止的，当要表达没有必要做某事，我们使用 don't have to。

Strange but Interesting Laws Around the World

Laws keep society in order. Some foreign laws sound really strange, yet they were made for practical local reasons.

In Singapore, selling or importing chewing gum is against the law. Only medical-use gum can be bought with a doctor's prescription. This rule helps keep public places clean and protects public facilities from sticky waste.

In Italy's Turin, dog owners must walk their dogs at least three times every day. If they break the rule, they will face fines. The law shows great respect for animal welfare.

Western Australia also has a surprising rule. People cannot privately hold more than 50 kilogrammes of potatoes without official permission. It dates back to World War II for market management.

These laws may seem funny at first sight. However, they reflect local history, culture and special social needs. When travelling abroad, we should learn about and follow local rules.

UNIT 10 Keep Fit

A Dialogues & Passages

Conversation

Emma: There is a ping-pong bat here. Is it yours?

Jim: No, it isn't mine. Maybe it's Yaming's.

Emma: Hi, Yaming! Is this your bat?

Yaming: Oh yes, it's mine. Thanks!

Emma: Not at all. Your bat looks well-used. Do you play often?

Yaming: Yes, twice a week, and sometimes more! And you?

Emma: Hardly ever. I'm not very good at it!

Yaming: Well, practice makes perfect. How often do you play, Jim?

Jim: I seldom do, but I often play badminton.

Yaming: Oh, me too.

Emma: I sometimes play badminton with Ella. We should all play doubles sometime!

Passage 1

Xia Tian

I like skateboarding very much. My friends and I practise at a special park twice a week. My skateboard is really cool, and so are theirs. We encourage one another to do tricks. Some tricks are difficult, but once you succeed, you feel great! I like skateboarding because it keeps me fit.

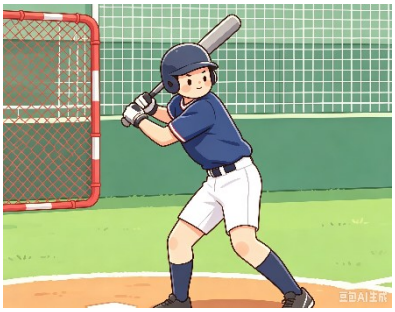

Jenny

This year, my goal is to be really fit. I jog, swim, and do sit-ups. But my favourite way of keeping fit is to use an exercise app to work out. The app gives me exercises to do every day. It can show my progress. My friends use the app too. We have fun when we keep fit together!

I'm in my school's baseball club, so I play baseball quite often. It's my favourite sport. We play many matches. The other teams are great, but I think ours is the best! We usually practise three times a week after school. We also exercise a lot because it keeps us fit and helps us play better. Baseball also builds team spirit. All of us are good friends, both on and off the field. We work as a team, and we win or lose as a team.

Passage 2

My favourite sport is swimming. It's fun to swim and play with my friends in the water. Also, I like swimming because the cool water feels great when it's hot. I go swimming two or three times a week. Swimming is good for me because it keeps me healthy. I think everyone should try it!

Passage 3

We all know exercise is important, yet we don't always want to do it! Often we are too busy or feel lazy. But we should try our best to exercise every day.

Exercise is good for our body. When we exercise, our body changes. Exercise develops our muscles and makes us stronger. When we exercise, we use energy. This keeps our weight down. Being overweight puts stress on our body. It can cause pain in our back and knees, and even cause more serious problems such as heart disease later in life.

Exercise is also great for our brain. During exercise, our heart beats faster and we breathe harder. Our brain gets more oxygen because of this, and that helps our memory improve. Scientists also tell us the body makes more of certain chemicals after exercise. This helps us to learn and think well. So, when you have trouble with your homework, do some exercise, then try again!

Exercise also helps us to feel happier. When we exercise, our brain makes special chemicals. These chemicals can relax our body and calm our mind. Feeling fit can also make us feel better and more confident about ourselves. When we play a sport with others, we can even make new friends.

Remember: Health is wealth. The more you exercise, the healthier you become. Try to make exercise a part of your life.

KS1 Possessive Pronouns & Possessive Adjectives 名词性和形容词性物主代词

Possessive pronouns are words that replace nouns to show ownership, such as mine, yours, his, hers, its, ours, and theirs. Possessive adjectives are words that modify nouns to show ownership or relationship, such as my, your, his, her, its, our, their.

名词性物主代词，例如：mine、yours、his、hers、its、ours、theirs，是用来替代名词或表示所属关系的词；而形容词性物主代词，例如：my、your、his、her、its、our、their，是用来表示名词从属关系的词。

KS2 Adverbs for Frequency & How often Questions 频率副词及 How often 问句

We use adverbs like always, usually, often, sometimes, seldom, hardly ever, and never, or phrases like once / twice / three times a day / week / month to express how often things happen. We use how often to ask about these frequencies.

我们使用 always、usually、often、sometimes、seldom、hardly ever 和 never 等副词或 once / twice / three times a day / week / month 等短语表达事情发生的频率。在询问这些频率时，我们使用 how often 提问。

Tips on Writing an Expository Essay

The purpose of the expository essay is to explain a topic in a clear and simple way. Without bells and whistles, these essays give a fair and balanced look at a subject using facts. They do not show the writer's own ideas or feelings. Here are some steps to write this kind of essay:

➢ Prewriting:

1) Spend some time thinking of different ideas about your topic and main point.

2) Find useful information and write down key notes.

3) Make a simple plan. It shows what you will write in each paragraph, and put your ideas in a clear order.

➢ Drafting: The essay follows the basic structure below:

· Paragraph 1: Opening. Start with an interesting sentence to catch readers' eyes. Add a main sentence to tell readers your main idea and what you want to talk about in your essay.

· Paragraph 2: Body, 1st point + supporting evidence.

· Paragraph 3: Body, 2nd point + supporting evidence.

· Paragraph 4: Body, 3rd point + supporting evidence.

· Paragraph 5: Ending. Talk about the main ideas and the key thought in simple words.

➢ Revising: Read your draft several times and ask yourself these questions:

1) Do you explain the topic fairly? Are your ideas clear and in good order? Do you use useful facts and examples?

2) Can readers easily and clearly understand what you write?

3) Do not write off-topic ideas. Stay focused on your topic and do not add useless details.

4) Can readers follow your writing easily from one sentence or paragraph to the next?

5) Does your ending paragraph show the importance and meaning of your main idea and supporting points?

➢ Editing: Check your essay carefully. Fix all grammar and spelling mistakes. Also, change your sentences to make your writing smoother and easier to understand.

UNIT 11 Eat Well

A Dialogues & Passages

Conversation

Waiter: Hello! What would you like to order?

Tom: What about Gongbao chicken? We often have it in America, but it may taste different here. I'd like to try it.

Dad: Good idea!

Mum: Do you have anything with tofu?

Waiter: Yes. Would you like a hot tofu dish or a cold one?

Mum: A hot tofu dish, please.

Waiter: We have Mapo tofu. Would you like that?

Mum: Yes, please. We should also order a salad.

Dad: How about a chicken and cabbage salad?

Tom: That sounds good. Can we order soup too?

Dad: OK. Let's see … Which soup would you like, chicken or fish?

Mum: Fish, please!

Dad: Sure. Now, would you like rice or noodles?

Tom: Rice, please.

Mum: OK. Let's get that.

Passage 1

Improve Your Eating Habits

Healthy eating is important for a healthy body and mind. Both what we eat and how we eat are important!

For example, some people have fast food every week. It is easy and delicious! But it often has lots of salt, fat, and sugar. That makes us put on weight. Eating fast food like pizza and hamburgers too often may cause heart problems later. If you cook your own meals instead, you can make healthy balanced meals.

Eating three meals a day is important. But some people don't have breakfast. Maybe they don't feel hungry in the morning, or they are too busy to eat anything. But food gives us energy. It is easy to feel sleepy and find it hard to focus on our work or studies if we don't eat breakfast.

Some people also eat too many sweet things. Ice cream, sweets, and chocolate are delicious, but they usually have lots of sugar. This can cause tooth problems. When you want a snack, why don't you have some fruit instead? After all, an apple a day keeps the doctor away.

Remember: You are what you eat. Healthy eating means eating healthy food and having good eating habits.

Passage 2

I have some good eating habits. I eat three meals a day, and I have them on time. I eat a lot of vegetables too. Some of my friends don’t like carrots or other vegetables, and they don’t eat them, but I eat all kinds of vegetables.

However, I have some bad eating habits too. First, I drink too many soft drinks. I love soft drinks because they taste so good! But soft drinks usually have a lot of sugar. They’re bad for me. Second, I don’t drink enough water. I drink water when I am thirsty, but it’s better to drink before I get thirsty. In future, I should drink more water.

Passage 3

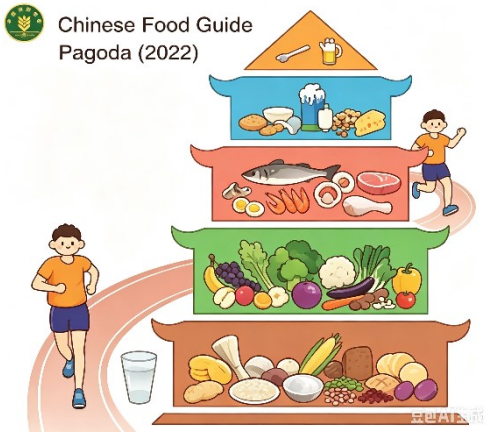

Food Myths

"Only fruit and vegetables are healthy foods." The human body needs to eat many different types of food to stay healthy. The Chinese Food Guide Pagoda shows us what food we should eat. While fruit and vegetables are healthy choices, it is just as important to eat foods from other food groups. Milk, for example, contains many nutrients and is good for our bones. We should include milk or dairy products among the things we eat.

LGPL3 Free as in Freedom

"Eating fat makes you fat." Eating fat is important for keeping us healthy. It gives us energy and helps our body to take in nutrients. Not all fat makes us gain weight. Some fat can even encourage our body to lose weight. It is necessary to include some, but not too much, fat in our food to help our body work well.

"It's OK to eat only what I like while I'm young." When we are young, it might feel like we can just eat whatever we want! For example, sweets and fried foods taste delicious. But we cannot eat those foods alone. Eating balanced meals is very important when we are young. It helps our body and brain to grow well. Bad eating habits may stay with us our whole life, so it is best to develop good eating habits early!

B Key Structures

Read, Discuss and Think

1. Which would you like with your meal, rice or noodles? Noodles, please.
2. Would you like juice or coffee? No, thanks. I'd like a cup of tea.
3. Would you like chips, noodles, or rice for lunch? I don't know.
4. Are we eating in or out this evening?
5. Is this the front or the back of the dress?

KS Alternative Questions 选择疑问句

An alternative question, also called a choice question, presents two or more possible answers within the question itself, typically connected by the word "or".

选择疑问句，也叫备选疑问句，会在问句中给出两个或多个可选答案，通常由单词 or 连接。

Alternative questions can be answered by selecting one of the options provided, or in some contexts, with a yes/no response if the question allows it. For example:

Q: Would you like a cup of coffee or tea? A: Coffee, please.

Q: Are we meeting at the café or at the park? A: Café.

Q: Do you like an apple or an orange? A: No, I don't like either.

Q: Are there trains or buses from the airport to Belgrade? A: Yes, there are. (Both options exist)

选择疑问句可以从给出的选项里选一项作答；在部分语境下，如果问句允许，也可以用 yes / no 来回答。详见示例。

Poems about Health

Hence, kindly wish, fly away, fly away,
Find me the one I think of today!
Fly then no longer, but linger and say
"Health be yours, joy be yours,
Ever and aye."

Our mental health is just as important
As our physical, it's true
To stay positive and healthy,
Know what it is you must do
Your attitude must be positive
For mental health to be good
Be mindful and aware of problems
And deal with them as you should.

Talk to someone and share,
Get that weight off your chest
Take time away from stress,
Have a good rest.
It may take effort each day
But the result is worth it all
Pay attention to your emotional well-being,
Don't let yourself fall!

Proverbs about Health

- Health is better than wealth.
- One who eats plain food is healthy.
- If you wish to live long, take a walk after the meal.
- Early to bed and early to rise, makes a man healthy, wealthy, and wise.
- Wealth is but worldly goods. Nothing pains a person more than being rolling in money but in poor health.

A Dialogues & Passages

Conversation

Jane: Hi, Dad. How are you?

Dad: Hi, Jane! I'm fine. How's life in Guangzhou?

Jane: We're having a holiday here. Hao Yi and I are making zongzi!

Dad: That sounds great! Are you making them for the Dragon Boat Festival?

Jane: That's right! What about you? What are you doing?

Dad: I'm washing the car right now.

Jane: Is Mum there too? Is she feeling better?

Dad: Yes, her cold is gone. She's gardening. Hold on. Here's Mum.

Jane: Hi, Mum! How are you doing?

Mum: Good, thanks. It's great to hear your voice!

Jane: Yours too! I'm happy you're feeling better!

Mum: Thanks! Are you having fun in China?

Jane: Yes, I am. Hao Yi and I are making zongzi and watching dragon boat races on TV. Oh, I have to go now. Let's talk later.

Mum: OK. Bye, darling!

Passage 1

What is happening in different time zones around the world right now? What are people doing in different places?

It's 8 p.m. in Chongqing, China. Some people are rushing to get home from work. But others are not in a hurry! They are enjoying the city at night. Lights are shining brightly across the city, and colourful boats are moving slowly down the river. People are eating delicious food, such as Chongqing hot pot and noodles.

In Nairobi, Kenya, it's 3 p.m. Many people are working hard in their offices. Some people are shopping for gifts, such as paintings and bags, in the markets. Many others are walking in the parks and looking at elephants and giraffes. In this city, people live side by side with many wonderful animals!

It's 7 a.m. in New York, USA. It's early, but the city is getting busy! Many people are rushing to the subway. They are going to work. Bright yellow taxis are picking up and dropping off passengers. Some people are jogging, walking, and riding bikes in Central Park. Others are drinking coffee and eating breakfast in coffee shops.

Passage 2

Dear Kate,

I am writing to you from Pingyao! My family and I are visiting my uncle. We are having a great time! My uncle is showing us all the sights. We are staying near Pingyao’s famous city walls.

I know it’s near your exams. Are you studying today? I hope it is all going well! I am looking forward to seeing you soon!

Love,

Beth

Passage 3

Visiting New Places

Sandra

"Olá, I'm Sandra from Lisbon. Welcome back to my channel! Today I'm visiting a friend in Paris. It's a wonderful city! There are many tourists here. They're visiting the museums and galleries. Some tourists are taking a boat along the River Seine too! My friends and I are going to the Eiffel Tower now! I'm taking lots of photos to send to my family."

Liu Meng

"Nihao! It's Liu Meng from Shanghai. Right now my family and I are visiting friends in Canada. We're all on a tour of the Niagara Falls. It's amazing! We're on a boat close to the falls. The water's pouring fast over the falls. It's so powerful! We're wearing raincoats but are still getting very wet! We're having great fun anyway!"

Alex

"Sawasdee-krap everyone, it's Alex. Today I'm visiting my uncle in Thailand. We're at the beach now! I'm from Switzerland, and this is actually my first time seeing the sea! It's great. The sun is shining and it's really hot, but there are still lots of people here. Some people are swimming and playing in the water, and others are sunbathing or playing games on the beach. My uncle is teaching me how to surf. It's tricky, but I think I'm making good progress. It feels great to ride the waves!"

B Key Structures

Read, Discuss and Think

1. Listen! Mrs. Green is singing.
2. We're watching the races on TV now.
3. I'm doing my homework now.
4. Mr. Spock is watching a film at the moment.
5. Look! Tom is running after Jerry.

KS1 Present Continuous Tense I 现在进行时 I

The present continuous tense is used for actions happening now, temporary situations, repeated temporary actions, and changes. The basic structure is: S + am / is / are + (not) + v-ing + other elements.

现在进行时用于描述此刻正在发生的动作、暂时性状态、反复发生的临时性动作以及变化的过程，其基本结构为：主语 + am / is / are + (not) + 动词-ing 形式 + 其他。

KS2 Spelling Rules for v-ing 动词变-ing 形式的规则

· Add –ing: listen→listening, study→studying, wait→waiting, fix→fixing;

· Drop –e, then add –ing: make→making, live→living, improve→improving, come→coming;

· Double final consonant (CVC + stress), then add –ing: run→running, stop→stopping, drop→dropping;

· Change –ie to –ying: lie→lying, die→dying, tie→tying.

通常，动词变-ing 形式遵循以下规则：

· 直接加 ing，例如：listen→listening, study→studying, wait→waiting, fix→fixing；

· 去 e 加 ing，例如：make→making, live→living, improve→improving, come→coming；

· 双写末尾辅音字母（重读闭音节"辅+元+辅"结构）加 ing，例如：run→running, stop→stopping, drop→dropping；

· 变 ie 为 y 加 ing，例如：lie→lying, die→dying, tie→tying。

A Dialogues & Passages

Conversation

Bill: Hey, Anna. How's your holiday going?

Anna: It's wonderful! I'm at a beach in Sanya!

Bill: Wow, lucky you! That sounds amazing. What's the weather like there?

Anna: It's hot and sunny. It's about 28°C.

Bill: That's nice! What are you doing at the beach?

Anna: I'm sunbathing at the moment! My brother John's here too.

Bill: Oh, what's he doing?

Anna: He's playing beach volleyball right now. What about you? How's the weather in Stockholm?

Bill: Well, it's cold and snowy. It's about -3°C.

Anna: Oh, that's really cold! What's your family doing?

Bill: Well, we usually stay in when it snows, but now we're building a snowman outside. Hey, come and visit us some day!

Anna: OK. Once the weather turns warm!

Passage 1

Helen 7:22 1st May

We're here at Mount Huangshan! The clouds look amazing. It feels like a magical place. The trees and rocks look like a part of a painting.

9:18 1st May

We're at a rest area now. Climbing is hard, but we're making good progress. Although the weather is bad, many people here are still in high spirits. I don't think my brother Peter is enjoying the experience very much, so I'm encouraging him.

The sun is shining through the clouds! It's a lovely sight. I'm so glad we're here at Bright Peak.

Peter 6:35 1st May

Today I'm visiting Mount Huangshan with my family. I'm not really enjoying the experience. Everything looks grey, and you can't see much because of the heavy fog. The ground is very wet, so we have to climb slowly.

9:15 1st May

Climbing is tiring! My shoes are all wet and dirty too. There are many other tourists at this rest area, but they don't seem tired at all. Instead, they're talking and laughing! My sister Helen is also in high spirits.

10:40 1st May

We're here at Bright Peak. Mount Huangshan is beautiful in the sunlight. I'm tired and hungry, but it feels good to be at the top!

Passage 2

It is 2nd January. It is freezing. The temperature is -20°C! Many people are visiting this special place at the moment. Here they can see lots of special ice works of art like large and colourful buildings.

Some of the tourists are from South China. They are enjoying the ice festival very much. Look! What are they doing? Some of them are taking photos, and some are skating. Do you know the name of this special place?

Passage 3

Weather and Mood

Do you know how weather affects our lives? Well, it affects where we go, what we do, and what we wear. And it also affects how we feel and behave. It is a big part of our lives!

LGPL3 Free as in Freedom

We often use weather language to describe how we feel. For example, if we are feeling ill, we say we are "under the weather". If we are feeling stressed and busy, we can say that we are "snowed under". We use "bad" weather (rainy, stormy, etc.) to describe a bad mood, and "good" weather (sunny, warm, etc.) to describe a good mood.

And that is not all. The weather can even change the way we feel! For example, sunlight helps our body to produce vitamin D. This vitamin can improve our mood. But some parts of the world get little sunlight in winter, so people can feel unusually sad then. However, when it is hot and sunny, some people may get angry easily too! Scientists are still studying how the weather changes the way people feel and behave.

These days, many of us spend less time outside than in the past. Getting no fresh air or sunlight and spending too much time inside can make us feel down. It is very important to go outside once in a while, whatever the weather, rain or shine!

Weather in Britain

Britain is famous for its changeable weather. People may meet “four seasons in one day”. A sunny morning can turn rainy and windy in just a few minutes. The temperature can go up or down fast. So people usually get ready for sudden weather changes.

Britain is near the Atlantic Ocean. Wet winds come from the ocean all year. Short sudden rains often come, even in spring and summer. Weather reports cannot always tell when rain will arrive.

That’s why many British people take umbrellas everywhere, even on sunny days. They use them not only for heavy rain, but also for sudden light showers.

This habit looks strange to visitors. But it is a good way to face the changing weather. If you travel there, take an umbrella, or you may get wet in sudden rain.

UNIT 14 A Day to Remember

A Dialogues & Passages

Conversation

Helen: Hi, Fu Xing. How was your school trip to the wastewater plant? Was it boring?

Fu Xing: No, it wasn't at all. It was really interesting!

Helen: Wow! What did you see?

Fu Xing: We saw the plant make dirty water clean again.

Helen: Really? How?

Fu Xing: Well, first, dirty water from our homes goes into the plant. Then, special screens remove large pieces of waste from the water.

Helen: What happens next?

Fu Xing: Well, large machines remove germs and other things from the water. These things are usually too small to see. It takes a few more steps after that before the water becomes clean again.

Helen: Wow! I used to think it was easy to get clean water.

Fu Xing: Me too! I didn't realise it was so hard.

Passage 1

Friday, 30th May

Today we went on a school trip to a farm! It was tiring but great fun! In the morning, we explored the farm. There were large tents with tomatoes, cucumbers, and many other fruits and vegetables. The farmer told us about how these fruits and vegetables go from the fields to our tables. I was very interested because I usually only see them in the supermarket.

Then we got straight to work! First, we picked some strawberries. The work seemed easy, but it took time to get it right. Slowly, we filled many baskets. In the afternoon, the farmer taught us how to cut branches and leaves from tomato plants. This helps them to grow more fruit. Finally, we watered the plants. Plants need so much work! It's tiring, but I enjoyed working with my hands.

One thing I learnt today: Farming isn't easy!

It made me think of the saying, "Every grain comes from hard work." The farmer let us take some vegetables home. My mum cooked some for dinner, and they were fresh and delicious! They certainly taste better when you work for them! Today was really a day to remember.

Passage 2

Last week our class went on a school trip to Jinggangshan. In a museum, we learned about important people like Mao Zedong and Zhu De. We saw many things such as old photos, paintings, and guns. We also tried on some uniforms from the past. We walked along the mountain roads and thought about the past. Many people back then worked hard to create what we have today. It was a day to remember, and it made me want to work hard for a better future, too.

Passage 3

Wednesday, 22nd July

Today was an amazing day. There was a total solar eclipse in Wuhan! I woke up early because I couldn't wait to see it!

My friends and I went down to the Yangtze River to find a good place to watch it. We took cameras, chairs, food and drink, and special glasses so we could look at it. Lots of people gathered there to watch too. Slowly, the moon moved in front of the sun. It looked like someone bit a hole in the sun! It got darker and darker as the moon slowly covered the sun.

At 9:26 a.m. the moon completely covered the sun. The sky went dark. The crowd gasped and cheered. The light of the sun made a ring of light around the moon. I took this photograph then. The total eclipse lasted for over five minutes! Then it passed and the sky started to get brighter again.

I was really inspired by the eclipse this morning. In the afternoon, I spent hours reading about astronomers, eclipses, and how the planets move in our solar system. The universe is simply amazing! I also watched some videos with famous Chinese astronauts. I want to become an astronaut or astronomer someday too. The sky is the limit!

KS Simple Past Tense (be) 一般过去时（be）

The simple past tense is used to describe an action or a state that happened and was finished completely at a definite time in the past. If there is the verb be (was, were) in the sentence, the basic structure is: S + be + (not) + other elements. For the simple past tense with be, the yes–no questions are formed by placing be before the subject. For example, "Were you in red yesterday?" or "Was he late for school last Friday?"

一般过去时用于描述发生在过去某个确定时间、并且已经彻底结束的动作或状态。如果句中含有 be 动词（was、were），其基本结构为：主语 ＋be＋(not)＋ 其他。此时，一般疑问句是将系动词 be 置于主语之前构成。例如："Were you in red yesterday?"或"Was he late for school last Friday?"

Tips on Continuation Writing

Story continuation is a common writing task in English exams. You will get the beginning of a story, usually one to three paragraphs, and you need to write the rest of it. When you write a story freely, you can write anything you want. But for story continuation, you need to follow the original story, keep the same feeling and style, and write a good ending. Here are some steps for story continuation:

- Read the given part of story twice:

  1) First read for understanding. Second read for tone, vocabulary, and details.

  2) Note the setting, characters' names, the mood, and any unresolved problems.

- Plan for 3-5 minutes: Decide what happens next, where the problem leads, and how it resolves.
- Open with continuity: Your first sentence should feel like a natural continuation.
- Build to a climax: Make the story more exciting in the middle. Let a character make a choice. Add surprising events. Show their actions. Use short sentences for fast, exciting moments.
- End with purpose: Finish your story properly. Never just stop.

Tips

Keep the same writing style

If the original story feels nervous and serious, keep the same feeling. If it is warm and funny, write in the same way. Do not suddenly change the story's style, or you will lose points.

Make strong feelings with three sentences

To make the story more exciting, write sentences in this order: a short sentence, a shorter sentence, and finally one single word. This helps create the most exciting moment and catches readers' attention.

Show feelings with actions. Do not just tell

Do not only write simple sentences like "She was scared". Instead, write "Her hands shook and she breathed fast and hard". Use actions and small details to show people's feelings.

Write a great ending

A good ending leaves the deepest impression. You can end with a clear picture, a final result of the story, or a meaningful sentence from a character. Never stop your story halfway.

UNIT 15 Once upon a Time

A Passages

Passage 1

Here's The Emperor's New Clothes by Hans Christian Andersen.

Once upon a time, an emperor liked clothes very much. He wanted to buy some new clothes.

Two brothers came and lied to him, "We can make wonderful clothes! But only clever people can see them!" They pretended to make the clothes.

The emperor's officials couldn't see the clothes, but they said, "What lovely clothes!" The emperor couldn't see anything either, but he said, "They're beautiful!" No one wanted to look silly.

The emperor decided to show everyone his new clothes. People in the street praised them. They were afraid to look silly too!

Suddenly, a boy shouted, "Look! The emperor has no clothes on!" Everyone looked at one another. They started laughing.

The end! Did you like the story? Please tell me what you think!

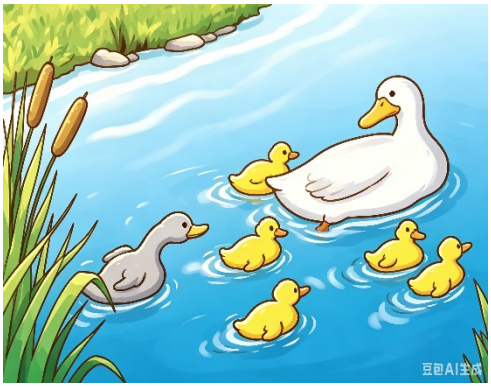

Passage 2

The Ugly Duckling

Once upon a time, there was a mother duck. She had six little ducklings. Five of the ducklings were small and yellow, but the last duckling was big and grey. "He doesn't look like us! What an ugly duckling!" the other ducklings said. "That's not nice!" said Mother Duck. "He's still a duck like us!"

At the river, the ugly duckling swam well, just like all the other ducklings. But the other ducklings still laughed at him and told him to go away. It made the poor duckling very sad, so he decided to search for a new home. He met many other birds, but all of them thought that he was ugly too. They did not want him to live with them.

One day, the duckling met a cat and a hen. "May I stay with you?" he asked hopefully. But the two animals said no. They did not like him because he could not purr or lay eggs!

Some days later, the ugly duckling came to a lake. There, he saw three beautiful swans with long necks and white feathers. "I wish I looked like you!" he cried. "My friend, you do look like us! Look in the water!" one of the swans said. The duckling looked down, and to his surprise, he saw that he was a beautiful white swan too!

Passage 3

The Fisherman and the Golden Fish

(Adapted from Alexander Pushkin's The Tale of the Fisherman and the Golden Fish)

Narrator: There was once a fisherman who lived in a small house by the sea with his wife. One day, something very special happened.

Scene One [The fisherman's hut.]

Fisherman: An amazing thing happened when I went fishing today! I caught a little golden fish. It could speak! It promised me whatever I wanted if I set it free.

Wife: At last, fortune smiles upon us! What did you wish for?

Fisherman: Well ... I felt sorry for the fish, so I just put it back into the sea.

Narrator: His wife was very angry and made him find the fish.

Scene Two [By the sea.]

Fisherman: Little golden fish, are you there?

Golden fish: Hello, kind fisherman. What's the matter?

Fisherman: My wife was very angry because I didn't make a wish. We need a new pot. Please give us one!

Narrator: The golden fish said yes, and it went back into the water.

Scene Three [The fisherman's hut.]

Narrator: Back home, the fisherman found a new pot outside the house.

Fisherman: Look, a new pot!

Wife: You fool! Can't you see we need a new house instead? Go back again and ask for one!

Scene Four [By the sea.]

Fisherman: Little golden fish, are you still there?

Golden fish: Hello again, kind fisherman.

Fisherman: My wife wants a new house! Can you help me please?

Narrator: Again, the golden fish granted his wish.

Scene Five [The fisherman's hut.]

Narrator: The fisherman went back home. But his house was now big and beautiful.

Fisherman: Wow! Our house looks amazing!

Wife: The house is nice, but I want to be rich too! Go back and ask for money!

Passage 4

Once upon a time, a king asked an artist to paint him a horse.

“Please give me some time,” the artist answered.

The king waited for a few months before he grew angry. “Where is my painting?” he asked. Quickly, the artist painted a beautiful picture of a horse. The king said, “I like it! But why did you make me wait so long?” The artist smiled and took the king to his house. There were paintings of horses all over! “It took me months to learn how to paint a horse well!” he said.

If there is the general verb in the sentence, the basic structure is: S + vpt. (v-ed) + other elements. For the simple past tense with general verb, the yes–no questions are formed by placing did before the subject. For example, "Did you live in Zhengzhou five years ago?"

一般过去时用于描述发生在过去某个确定时间、并且已经彻底结束的动作或状态。如果句中含有一般动词，其基本结构为：主语 + 动词过去式（动词-ed） + 其他。此时，一般疑问句是将助动词 did 置于主语之前构成。例如："Did you live in Zhengzhou five years ago?"

KS2 Spelling Rules for vpt. (v-ed) 动词变过去式（动词-ed）

· Add –ed: listen→listened, wait→waited, fix→fixed, play→played;

· Add –d: live→lived, improve→improved, hope→hoped;

· Double final consonant (CVC + stress), then add –ed: stop→stopped, drop→dropped;

· Change –y into –ied if and only if preceded by consonant: study→studied, carry→carried.

Some verbs known as irregular verbs do not follow the above rules to form vpt. (v-ed) and must be memorised.

通常，动词变过去式（动词-ed）形式遵循以下规则：

· 直接加 ed，例如：listen→listened, wait→waited, fix→fixed, play→played；

· 以 e 结尾的加 d，例如：live→lived, improve→improved, hope→hoped；

· 双写末尾辅音字母（重读闭音节"辅+元+辅"结构）加 ed，例如：stop→stopped, drop→dropped；

· 当且仅当以"辅音+y"结尾，变 y 为 i 加 ed，例如：study→studied, carry→carried。

还有部分动词在变过去式（动词-ed）时不遵循上述规则，称作不规则动词（Irregular Verbs）。
