致同学

亲爱的同学们：

欢迎大家开启英语中级学习之旅！从现在起，这套教科书将伴你一路学习，见证你的成长。

本套教科书以问题为线索、以活动为载体，联结现实生活，彰显时代特色，融入丰富多元的文化内容。学习本套教材，有助于发展语言能力、培育文化意识、提升思维品质、增强学习能力，树立国际视野，涵养家国情怀，坚定文化自信，逐步形成正确的世界观、人生观与价值观。

本套教科书包含基础教程与提高教程两部分：基础教程共三册，对标 CEFR A2 等级与 CSE 3 级素养目标，达到初级中等学校毕业及高级中等学校招生选拔的基本要求；提高教程共一册，对标 CEFR B1 等级与 CSE 5 级素养目标，满足高级中等学校毕业及普通高等学校招生选拔的基本要求。

教科书结构方面：

基础教程以单元为基本组织模块，每册有 16 个单元，分为预备单元、复习单元和正式单元等三类。每个正式单元围绕一个单元主题，设置四个板块：A 板块（Dialogues & Passages）提供地道对话和优美短文，主题丰富、内容生动且富有时代性，帮助同学们学习英语语言知识，培养英语思维。B 板块（Key Structures）借助典型例句，讲解本单元重点语言知识。C 板块（Vocabulary & Phrases）列出本单元需要掌握的单词和短语：CSE 3 级核心词汇（1500 词）采用粗体字突出标识，要求认读、拼写、运用和辨析；CSE 5 级核心词汇（3500 词）采用正体字标识，要求认读、拼写；其余词汇为正体并在右上角加注星号（*），仅作认读要求。D 板块（Expanding Horizons）结合单元主题编排跨文化交流、跨学科学习、综合运用和写作等内容，为真实语境下的语言交际与应用奠定基础。

提高教程以课为基本组织模块，共 72 课，每课围绕特定语言知识设计课文（Passage）和词汇（Vocabulary）2 个模块，帮助学生深化对基础教程内容的理解，提升英语语言知识的综合运用能力。

英语作为一门自然语言，其魅力不仅体现在丰富的词汇与独特的语法体系，更蕴藏在语言持续使用、不断发展过程中承载的文化与历史。想要学好英语 —— 乃至任何一门自然语言，都需要掌握行之有效的学习方法，坚持多听、多说、多读、多写、多记、多用。

曾有一位游人在游览杭州西湖后写下一首打油诗：

昔年曾见此湖图，不信人间有此湖。

今日打从湖上过，画工还欠费功夫。

受限于教材篇幅与编者学识眼界，英语语言文学的博大精深，难以在这几册书中尽数展现。但这无妨，不妨坚持学下去。或许有一天，当你学有所成，回望这套教科书，会由衷感慨：“如今识得英语趣，编者还欠费工夫。” 书山有路勤为径，祝愿大家在英语学习的道路上收获新知，不断进步！

Passage

Fishing is my favourite sport. I often fish for hours without catching anything. But this does not worry me. Some fishermen are unlucky. Instead of catching fish, they catch old boots and rubbish. I am even less lucky. I never catch anything-not even old boots. After having spent whole mornings on the river, I always go home with an empty bag. 'You must give up fishing!' my friends say.' realise /ˈriːəlaɪz/ v. 意识到；认识到；实现 waste /weɪst/ n. & v. 废弃物；浪费

LESSON 24 Do the English Speak English?

Passage

I arrived in London at last. The railway station was big, black and dark. I did not know the way to my hotel, so I asked a porter. I not only spoke English very carefully, but very clearly as well. The porter, however, could not understand me; I repeated my question several times and at last he understood. He answered me, but he spoke neither slowly nor clearly. 'I am a foreigner,' I said. Then he spoke slowly, but I could not understand him. My teacher never spoke English like that! The porter and I looked at each other and smiled. Then he said something and I understood it. 'You'll soon learn English!' he said. I wonder. In England, each man speaks a different language. The English understand each other, but I don't understand them! Do they speak English?

LESSON 25 The Best Art Critics

Passage

I am an art student and I paint a lot of pictures. Many people pretend that they understand modern art. They always tell you what a picture is 'about'. Of course, many pictures arc not 'about' anything. They are just pretty patterns. We like them in the same way that we like pretty curtain material. I think that young children often appreciate modern pictures better than anyone else. They notice more. My sister is only seven, but she always tells me whether my pictures are good or not. She came into my room yesterday. 'What are you doing?' she asked. 'I'm hanging this picture on the wall,' I answered. 'It's a new one. Do you like it?' She looked at it critically for a moment.' It's all right,' she said, 'but isn't it upside-down?' I looked at it again. She was right! It was!

LESSON 40 Do You Call That a Hat?

Passage

'Do you call that a hat?' I said to my wife. 'You needn't be so rude about it,' my wife answered as she looked at herself in the mirror. I sat down on one of those modern chairs with holes in it and waited. We had been in the hat shop for half an hour and my wife was still in front of the mirror.

'We mustn't buy things we don't need,' I remarked suddenly. I regretted saying it almost at once.

'You needn't have said that,' my wife answered.' I need not remind you of that terrible tie you bought yesterday.'

'I find it beautiful,' I said. 'A man can never have too many ties.'

'And a woman can't have too many hats,' she answered.

Ten minutes later we walked out of the shop together. My wife was wearing a hat that looked like a lighthouse!

“我们不该买没用的东西。”我突然说。话刚出口我就后悔了。

“你用不着说这话，”妻子答道，“我都不提你昨天买的那条难看的领带了。”

“我觉得那条领带挺漂亮的，”我说，“男人有多少领带也不嫌多。”

“女人有多少帽子也不嫌多。”她答道。

10 分钟后，我们一起走出了商店。我妻子戴着一顶看上去像灯塔似的帽子！

LESSON 41 Not Very Musical

Passage

As we had had a long walk through one of the markets of Old Delhi, we stopped at a square to have a rest. After a time, we noticed a snake-charmer with two large baskets at the other side of the square, so we went to have a look at him. As soon as he saw us, he picked up a long pipe which was covered with coins and opened one of the baskets. When he began to play a tune, we had our first glimpse of the snake. It rose out of the basket and began to follow the movements of the pipe. We were very much surprised when the snake charmer suddenly began to play jazz tunes and modern pop songs. The snake, however, continued to 'dance' slowly. It obviously could not tell the difference between Indian music and jazz!

She was soon out of breath, but she continued to run. When she caught up with them, she saw that they had sat down and were going through the contents of the bag, so she ran straight at them. Passage

Dentists always ask questions when it is impossible for you to answer. My dentist had just pulled out one of my teeth and had told me to rest for a while. He then asked me how my brother was and whether I liked my new job in London. In answer to these questions, I either nodded or made strange noises. LESSON 47 Reward for Virtue

Passage

My friend, Herbert, has always been fat, but things got so bad recently that he decided to go on a diet. He began his diet a week ago. First of all, he wrote out a long list of all the foods which were forbidden. The list included most of the things Herbert loves: butter, potatoes, rice, beer, milk, chocolate, and sweets. Yesterday I paid him a visit. I rang the bell and was not surprised to see that Herbert was still as fat as ever. He led me into his room and hurriedly hid a large parcel under his desk. It was obvious that he was very embarrassed. When I asked him what he was doing, he smiled guiltily and then put the parcel on the desk. At the moment, they cover every inch of floor space and I actually have to walk on them to get in or out of the room. A short while ago, my sister helped me to carry one of my old bookcases up the stairs. She went into my room and got a big surprise when she saw all those books on the floor. LESSON 49 Hot Snake

Passage

At last firemen have put out a big forest fire in California. Since then, they have been trying to find out how the fire began. Forest fire are often caused by broken glass or by cigarette ends which people carelessly throw away. Yesterday the firemen examined the ground carefully, but were not able to find any broken glass. They were also quite sure that a cigarette end did not start the fire. This morning, however, a fireman accidentally discovered the cause. He noticed the remains of a snake which was wound round the electric wires of a 16,000-volt power line. In this way, he was able to solve the mystery. The explanation was simple but very unusual. A bird had snatched up the snake from the ground and then dropped it on to the wires. The snake then wound itself round the wires. When it did so, it sent sparks down to the ground and these immediately started a fire.

LESSON 51 Not a Gold Mine

Passage

Dreams of finding lost treasure almost came true recently. A new machine called 'The Revealer' has been invented and it has been used to detect gold which has been buried in the ground. The machine was used in a cave near the seashore where--it is said--pirates used to hide gold. The pirates would often bury gold in the cave and then fail to collect it. Armed with the new machine, a search party went into the cave hoping to find buried treasure. The leader of the party was examining the soil near the entrance to the cave when the machine showed that there was gold under the ground. Very excited, the party dug a hole two feet deep. They finally found a small gold coin which was almost worthless. The party then searched the whole cave thoroughly but did not find anything except an empty tin trunk. Once a year a race is held for old cars. A lot of cars entered for this race last year and there was a great deal of excitement just before it began. One of the most handsome cars was a Rolls-Royce Silver Ghost. The most unusual car was a Benz which had only three wheels. Built in 1885, it was the oldest car taking part. After a great many loud explosions, the race began. Many of the cars broke down on the course and some drivers spent more time under their cars than in them! A few cars, however, completed the race. The winning car reached a speed of forty miles an hour--much faster than any of its rivals. It sped downhill at the end of the race and its driver had a lot of trouble trying to stop it. As soon as he had finished, Jenny told him she wanted to go home. Geoffrey was a little disappointed by this but he did as his daughter asked. LESSON 58 The Channel Tunnel

Passage

In l858, a French engineer, Aime Thome de Gamond, arrived in England with a plan for a twenty-one-mile tunnel across the English Channel. He said that it would be possible to build a platform in the centre of the Channel. This platform would serve as a port and a railway station. The tunnel would be well-ventilated if tall chimneys were built above sea-level. In 1860, a better plan was put forward by an Englishman, William Low. He suggested that a double railway tunnel should be built. This would solve the problem of ventilation, for if a train entered this tunnel, it would draw in fresh air behind it. Forty-two years later a tunnel was actually begun. If, at the time, the British had not feared invasion, it would have been completed. Recently, there has again been great interest in the idea of a Channel Tunnel. If it is built, it will connect Britain to Europe for the first time in history.

1858 年，一位名叫埃梅·托姆·德·加蒙的法国工程师带着一项计划来到英国，计划在英吉利海峡底下修建一条 21 英里长的隧道。他说，可以在海峡中心建一个平台。这个平台可以用作港口和火车站。如果在海平面以上建造高大的烟囱，隧道就能通风良好。1860 年，一个叫威廉·洛的英国人提出了一个更好的方案。他建议修建一条双轨铁路隧道。这样就能解决通风问题，因为火车进入隧道时，会带进新鲜空气。42 年后，隧道真的开工了。如果当时英国人不害怕入侵的话，隧道早就建成了。世人又等了差不多 100 年，才迎来了英吉利海峡隧道。它于 1994 年 3 月 7 日正式开通，终于把英国和欧洲大陆连接了起来。

LESSON 59 Jumbo versus the Police

Passage

Last Christmas, the circus owner, Jimmy Gates, decided to take some presents to a children's hospital. Dressed up as Father Christmas and accompanied by a 'guard of honour' of six pretty girls, he set off down the main street of the city riding a baby elephant called Jumbo. He, should have known that the police would never allow this sort of thing. A policeman approached Jimmy and told him he ought to have gone along a side-street as Jumbo was holding up the traffic. Though Jimmy agreed to go at once, Jumbo refused to move. Fifteen policemen had to push very hard to get him off the main street. The police had a difficult time, but they were most amused. 'Jumbo must weigh a few tons,' said a policeman afterwards, 'so it was fortunate that we didn't have to carry him. Of course, we should arrest him, but as he has a good record, we shall let him off this time.'

LESSON 60 Sweet as Honey!

Passage

The Hatheld Puffin is a modern aero-plane, but its designer, Mr. John Wimpenny, is finding it difficult to get it off the ground. The reason for this is that this plane is also a bicycle. Its pilot has to pedal hard to get it into the air. After Mr. Wimpenny had the plane built, it was tested thoroughly. In 1961, it was the first man-powered aircraft to fly half a mile. While being flown by a champion amateur cyclist in 1963, the plane crashed on an airfield. Since then, Mr. Wimpenny has had it rebuilt. He has had the length of the wings increased so that they now measure 93 feet--almost as long as those of a Dakota. Many people have shown interest in this new and unusual sport. But though air cyclists may learn how to fly over short distances, and may, eventually, even get across the English Channel, it is doubtful whether they will ever cycle across the Atlantic.

He never has anything to do. No matter how busy you are, he always insists on coming with you. I had to think of a way of preventing him from following me around all morning.

'Hullo, Bert,' I said. 'Fancy meeting you here!'

'Hullo, Elizabeth,' Bert answered. 'I was just wondering how to spend the morning--until I saw you. You're not busy doing anything, are you?'

'No, not at all,' I answered. 'I'm going to...'

'Would you mind my coming with you?' he asked, before I had finished speaking.

I was being tested for a driving licence for the third time. I had been asked to drive in heavy traffic and had done so successfully. After having been instructed to drive out of town, I began to acquire confidence. Sure that I had passed, I was almost beginning to enjoy my test. The examiner must have been pleased with my performance, for he smiled and said, 'Just one more thing, Mr. Eames. Let us suppose that a child suddenly crosses the road in front of you. As soon as I tap on the window, I want the car to be stopped immediately.' I continued driving and after some time, the examiner tapped loudly. LESSON 63 A Famous Clock

Passage

When you visit London, one of the first things you will see is Big Ben, the famous clock which can be heard all over the world on the B.B.C. If the Houses of Parliament had hot been burned down in 1834, the great clock would never have been erected. Big Ben takes its name from Sir Benjamin Hall who was responsible for the making of the clock when the new Houses of Parliament were being built. It is not only of immense size, but is extremely accurate as well. Officials from Greenwich Observatory have the clock checked twice a day. On the B.B.C. you can hear the clock when it is actually striking because microphones are connected to the clock tower. Big Ben has rarely gone wrong. Once, however, it failed to give the correct time. A painter who had been working on the tower hung a pot of paint on one of the hands and slowed it down!

LESSON 64 The Record-Holder

Passage

Little boys who play truant from school are unimaginative. A quiet day's fishing, or eight hours in a cinema seeing the same film over and over again, is usually as far as they get. They have all been put to shame by a boy who, while playing truant, travelled 1600 miles. He hitch-hiked to Dover and, towards evening, went into a boat to find somewhere to sleep. When he woke up next morning, he discovered that the boat had, in the meantime, travelled to Calais. No one noticed the boy as he crept off. From there, he hitch-hiked to Paris in a lorry. The driver gave him a few biscuits and a cup of coffee and left him just outside the city. The next car the boy stopped did not take him into the centre of Paris as he hoped it would, but to Perpignan on the French-Spanish border. There he was picked up by a policeman and sent back to England by the local authorities. He has surely set up a record for the thousands of boys who dream of evading school.

It was the middle of winter. Snow lay thick on the ground. The woman knew that the nearest village was miles away. When it grew dark. she turned a suitcase into a bed and put the children inside it, covering them with all the clothes she could find. During the night, it got terribly cold. The woman kept as near as she could to the children and even tried to get into the case herself, but it was too small. Early next morning she heard planes passing overhead and wondered how she could send a signal. Then she had an idea. She stamped out the letters' SOS' in the snow. While we were waiting to land, an air-hostess told us to keep calm and to get off the plane quietly as soon as it had touched down. Everybody on board was worried and we were curious to find out what had happened. Later we learnt that there was a very important person on board. If explosives are used, vibrations will cause the roof of the mine to collapse. Rescue workers are therefore drilling a hole on the north side of the mine. They intend to bring the men up in a special capsule. If there had not been a hard layer of rock beneath the soil, they would have completed the job in a few hours. As it is, they have been drilling for sixteen hours and they still have a long way to go. Meanwhile, a microphone, which was lowered into the mine two hours ago, has enabled the men to keep in touch with the closest relatives. Experiments have proved that children can be instructed in swimming at a very early age. At a special swimming pool in Los Angeles, children become expert at holding their breath under water even before they can walk. Babies of two months old do not appear to be reluctant to enter the water, It is not long before they are so accustomed to swimming that they can pick up weights from the floor of the pool. A game that is very popular with these young swimmers is the underwater tricycle race. Tricycles are lined up on the floor of the pool seven feet under water. The children compete against each other to reach the other end of the pool. Many pedal their tricycles, but most of them prefer to push or drag them. You might have heard about the 2014 hacking of Sony Pictures' network. More recently, Russian hackers have been accused of tampering with voting systems in the 2016 U.S. presidential election.

Computer security breaches are commonplace, and several occur around the world every day. Hackers are continuously looking for new vulnerabilities to exploit. When networks are not secured, information about organisations and individuals, and even our government are at risk of being exposed or leveraged against us.

What is network security? According to the SANS Institute, network security is the process of taking preventative measures to protect the underlying networking infrastructure from un-authorised access, misuse, malfunction, modification, destruction or improper disclosure. Implementing these measures allows computers, users and programs to perform their permitted critical functions within a secure environment.

Why is network security important? Most homes with high-speed internet connections have one or more wireless routers, which could be exploited if not properly secured. A solid network security system helps reduce the risk of data loss, theft and sabotage.

Here are some simple steps you can take to make sure a home network is secure: First, change your router admin username and password. Then, change the network name. Then, activate encryption. Next, double up on firewalls. Next, turn off guest networks. Last but not least, update router firmware

The greatest and most important adventure of our lives is discovering who we really are. Finding yourself may sound like an inherently self-centred goal, but it is actually an unselfish process that is at the root of everything we do in life. In order to be the most valuable person to the world around us, we have to first know who we are, what we value and, in effect, what we have to offer. ___56___

LGPL3 Free as in Freedom

1. Make sense of your past

In order to uncover who we are and why we act the way we do, we have to know our own story. ___57___ It is how much we've made sense of what's happened to us.

2. ___58___

What is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life. Knowing what we want is fundamental to finding ourselves. Recognising our wants and desires helps us realise who we are and what's important to us. This may sound simple, but most of us are, to varying degrees, defended against our feelings of wanting. The experience of joy and fulfilment can be met with feelings of anxiety, and on a deeper level, profound sadness.

3. ___59___

When we know what we want, we are challenged to take power over our lives. No longer are we engaging in a spiral of negative thinking that tells us all the things that are wrong with the world around us or all the reasons we can't have what we want. Instead, we are accepting ourselves as a powerful player in our own destiny. Harnessing our personal power is essential to both finding and becoming ourselves.

4. Practise Compassion and Generosity

Mahatma Gandhi once said "The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others." ___60___ If we want to find our way in life, it's beneficial to practise generosity as a mental health principle and take on a compassionate and attitude toward ourselves and others.

A. Studies even show that people get more joy from giving than from getting.

B. Think about what you want

C. The following guide highlights some of the most universally useful steps to this very individual adventure.

D. Recognise your personal power

E. Research has shown that it isn't just the things that happened to us that define who we become.
